American Musicological Society

Fellowship Name: Howard Mayer Brown Fellowship

Due Date: Annually in Winter (Last Due Date: 2021-01-08)

Awards: $23,000

Category: Musicology

Notes: Intended to increase the presence of minority scholars and teachers in musicology, the fellowship supports one year of graduate work for a student at a U.S. or Canadian university who is a member of a historically underrepresented group, including, in the U.S., African Americans, Native Americans, Hispanic Americans, and Asian Americans, and, in Canada, aboriginal peoples and visible minorities (as defined by Canadian legislation). Preference will normally be given to candidates who are citizens or permanent residents of a North American country.

Kress Foundation

Name: History of Art Institutional Fellowships

Due Date: Annually in November

Award: Up to $30,000

Category: Arts

Notes: Advanced training in European art history requires direct exposure to the object of study, prolonged access to key information resources such as libraries and photographic archives, the development of professional relationships with colleagues abroad, and sustained immersion in European cultures. These related needs are often best satisfied by extended engagement with a European art research center. The Kress History of Art: Institutional Fellowships are intended to provide promising young art historians with the opportunity to experience just this kind of immersion. The program is open to both U.S. and non-U.S. citizens, provided that the latter have proper work and residency documentation.
